Featuring Anchor Stitchable Felt™

The seven-holes-to-the-inch perforated felt is great for creative cross-stitch projects. It's easy to stitch up awesome cozies for jars that you give to others or use yourself as a vase or for other storage.

Supplies

- ANCHOR Stitchable Felt™ Sheets:
1 each 0007 green and 0008 orange
- Stranded Cotton Embroidery Floss:
yellow and orange
- Large-eye tapestry needle
- Scissors
- Pinking shears
- Elastic cord, 6" (15 cm)
- Large button, about 7/8" (2.22 cm)

ANCHOR Stitchable Felt™ Sheets:

Art. ASF001. 9" (23 cm) x 12" (30 cm) sheets with 7 holes per inch are available in 8 colors.

1. Follow the cross-stitch chart using 6 strands of Anchor Embroidery Floss to create the daisies on the green felt.

2. Cut the long edges of the green felt with pinking scissors to create a decorative edge. Cut the orange felt slightly wider to leave a border.

3. Sew the elastic cord into a loop on one end of the orange felt.

4. Layer the green rectangle on top of the orange rectangle. Sew straight stitches with yellow floss through both layers to hold the layers together on each end.

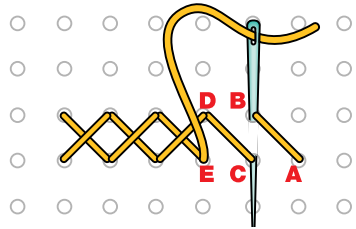

5. Sew the large button through both layers of felt on the opposite end from the elastic loop.

6. Place finished cozy around glass canning jar and loop the elastic cord around the button to complete.

Stitching on Stitchable Felt

Cross Stitch

Each crossed stitch is placed over a square of the perforated felt following chart.

Bring needle out at A, reinsert at B, out at C and in at D; repeat for as many stitches as needed. To work the crossing stitch in the other direction, bring needle out at E and reinsert at B and repeat for all stitches.
