Pom-pom Aliens

Pompoms and googly eyes are such a fun combination! Pompoms are easy to make, and these silly aliens are a sure win for a crafty party!

BASIC Alien

Steps (refer to photos):

1. Wrap yarn around the 9" [23 cm] piece of cardboard, 100 times.

2. Remove yarn from cardboard, pinching center and then securing with a chenille stem.

3. Cut loops on each side and then fluff pom-pom and trim if necessary.

4. With 6 oz dessert cup held upside down, apply glue to outside bottom of cup. Apply glue to center of pom-pom.

5. Join pom-pom to cup, pressing glue together and letting strands of pom-pom hang down to cover cup. Let set until dry.

6. With all 3 colors, wrap yarn around the 5" [12.5 cm] piece of cardboard, 40 times.

7. Remove yarn from cardboard, pinching center and then securing with a chenille stem. (photo 7)

8. Cut loops on each side and then fluff pompom and trim if necessary.

9. Apply glue to center of both pompoms. Press pompoms together and let set until dry.

10. Curl ends of 2 chenille stems and glue googly eyes to curled ends.

11. Glue opposite (straight) end of chenille stems and place into body of smaller pompom. Let set until dry.

See photos for other alien options, using larger and smaller pompoms and cups.
